Name _____ Phone:(home) _____ (work) _____

Address _____ City, State, Zip _____

Consideration for being permitted to participate in voluntary pastoral and religious counseling, herein referred to as “Counseling”, and prayer ministry, herein referred to as “Prayer Ministry”, the undersigned, _____, herein referred to as “Counselee”, agrees as follows:

1. This is a church-based ministry of NCC providing Counseling and Prayer Ministry in individual and group settings. Our Counseling is done by pastoral staff and lay-ministers, herein referred to as “Counselors.” These individuals are not licensed as professional counselors, social workers, or psychologists because they perform religious counseling and not secular or psychological counseling. If it becomes apparent that secular or psychological counseling may better address the Counselee’s needs, the Counselor will immediately initiate a referral to a licensed professional counselor, social worker or psychologist.
2. Under all circumstances, sexual contact between a Counselor and Counselee is prohibited. If any Counselor suggests or attempts sexual advances, the Counselee shall terminate the session immediately and report the incident to the Executive Senior Pastor, or any other Elder not involved in the counseling.
3. Under normal circumstances, your Counselor will use their good faith efforts to keep your discussions in confidence. However, you should be aware there are some situations in which your Counselor may be required by law to report information to the proper authorities without your permission or knowledge. These situations include, but may not be limited to: a Counselee’s intent of harm to self or others, involvement in a felony, suicidal intentions, and/or reasonable evidence of child or elder abuse or neglect. Your Counselor may also disclose information in response to a subpoena issued by a court of law. Additionally, if you occupy a leadership or ministry position, your Counselor may also disclose information to the person in authority over you, in the event he or she deems it relevant to your fitness or ability to fulfill your position.
4. Officially recognized church staff and lay-personnel may also have limited access to your pastoral file. Any other person seeking access to your pastoral file may do so only with your written permission. However, New Covenant Church cannot guarantee complete confidentiality with regard to the information received from you.
5. New Covenant Church requires that parent(s) must be actively involved in any Counseling and/or Prayer Ministry that is extended to a minor child as determined by the Counselor. At the discretion of the Counselor, parent(s) will be required to make themselves accountable for active participation in Counseling and/or Prayer Ministry offered by NCC.
6. Counselees with any concerns or questions about this agreement agree to raise them with their Counselor at the earliest possible time.
7. This agreement, herein referred to as the “Ministry Agreement”, will govern all relations involved during the term of the counseling process. Should the Counselee participate in Prayer Ministry, the Voluntary Release, Assumption of Risk and Indemnity Agreement will be incorporated as part of this Ministry Agreement. It is agreed that any disputed or modifications of this Ministry Agreement will be determined directly between the individuals involved. If this Ministry Agreement is not satisfactory, then it is further agreed that disputes and disagreements will be taken to the New Covenant Church Board for mediation. In the event that a satisfactory resolution is not achieved, then it is further agreed that a mutually acceptable third-party mediator will be utilized. If the mediation is unsuccessful, then the dispute shall be submitted to Christian Arbitration under the Rules of Arbitration published by the Institute for Christian Mediation, www.HisPeace.org. All expenses incurred will be the responsibility of the party bringing the dispute.

I have read the above ministry agreement, understand it, and agree to the terms herein written.
